

INTERNATIONAL STUDY PROGRAMME SPRING 2023

Social work and health professions in the context of culture and diversity

- What?
- Study a semester-long programme in Bochum, Germany
  - Earn up to 30 ECTS in a blend of regular semester-long seminars and compact courses
  - Exchange and connect with German and international students
  - Get insights from local practitioners and researchers as well as experts from our partner universities worldwide in an interdisciplinary setting
  - Engage with international concerns in social work and disability studies and discover academic, practice-based, and artistic approaches
- Who?
- Students from our partner universities, who have completed their first year of undergraduate studies
  - Students in the broader fields of study of Social Work and Welfare, as well as related fields of study
- When?
- March – July 2023
  - Application deadline: 31 October 2022

For more details on the programme, funding opportunities, and application procedures, scan the QR code or visit:

Protestant University of Applied Sciences (EvH RWL)
www.evh-bochum.de/international-study-programme.html